INTRODUCTION: WHAT IS THE NYAC?

Each year, Global Vision brings together Canada's top young leaders for the National Youth Ambassador Caucus in Ottawa. Through interactive workshops and speaker series, fifty Ambassadors from across the country engage with business, government, and community leaders on national and international topics.

In particular, the program for 2015 includes: a celebration for the 50th Anniversary of the National Flag of Canada; a strategy development challenge for marketing Canada's 150th anniversary; the JTC Game Changer program, presented by Global Vision founder Terry Clifford; and a Parliamentary reception where Ambassadors will network with their Members of Parliament and various other government leaders.

Ambassadors will leave the NYAC with a greater appreciation for Canada's rich heritage, the skills & knowledge necessary to create positive change in their communities, and a national network of like-minded peers that will become friends for life.
